Logistics

- One breakout room per topic.
- Other breakout rooms for one-on-one if necessary.
- Use of the breakout room chat for questions.
- sli.do questions will be dispatched to breakout rooms before the session.
- You can join any breakout room at any time!

After the tutorial

Tutorial Survey - Sent next week at the latest

- We'll send out a google doc link to a survey.
- Please respond to survey. It helps us improve the tutorial.
- Please be constructive.
- Remember everybody here volunteered their time.
- Remember, it was our first time organizing this tutorial remotely.

Project code

- As of today: 155,000 core hours left.
- Will remain available until August 31st. We could ask for an extension if you are still experimenting with it and if allocation is not spent.

Future CESM tutorial application

Typically, once you've participated in one tutorial, you will not be selected for future ones.
